The Canada Not-for-profit Corporations Act provides not-for-profit corporations with a new set of rules that are described by Industry Canada as “modern, flexible and better suited to the needs of today's not-for-profit sector.” For the most part our practices were consistent with these new rules. However, as a not-for-profit corporation operating in Canada, we were required to come into compliance with the act by updating our Letters and Patent (replacing the original from 1977) and by-laws (replacing those passed in 2001). We also chose to take advantage of this opportunity to change the name of the corporation from “THE CANADIAN ACOUSTICAL ASSOCIATION – L’ASSOCIATION CANADIENNE DE L’ACOUSTIQUE” to “CANADIAN ACOUSTICAL ASSOCIATION – ASSOCIATION CANADIENNE D’ACOUSTIQUE”. This change brings the English and French names into better alignment and corrects a grammatical blunder with the French name. To help with the process the board agreed to recruit the help of a not-for-profit law firm, Blumberg Segal LLP.

The matter was first discussed with the membership at the Annual General Meeting in Winnipeg (October, 2014). A special meeting of members was subsequently held at 105 Bond Street, Toronto, on the 2nd day of December 2014, to consider and vote on a Special Resolution authorizing the Corporation to file Articles of Continuance under the Act and to adopt the new By-law. Advanced notice of this meeting was provided to members via email and all associated documents were posted on the association website by October 29, 2014.

Details of the December 2, 2014 meeting:

1. Members who were unable to attend the meeting in person had the right to vote by proxy. We also made a provision for members to participate via teleconference.
2. Eleven members were present in person and 17 participated by proxy.
3. The motion to accept the documents was raised by Alberto Behar (Ryerson) and seconded by Alan Oldfield (AECOM). Our existing bylaws required quorum (12 or more) and 2/3 in favor for the motion to carry. We received unanimous support.

Legal proceedings since the Special Meeting:

1. Kate Robertson of Blumberg Segal LLP filed the documents with Corporations Canada and the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) on January 8, 2015.
2. The certificate of compliance was received and subsequently filed with the CRA on January 14, 2015. Our approval under the Charities act is under review as is our mandatory filing with the Ontario Ministry of Government and Consumer Services (we are registered with an Ontario address).

In the pages that follow, copies of all documents have been reproduced for posterity.

Notice by mail shall be sent at least fourteen (14) days prior to the meeting. Notice of a meeting shall not be necessary if all of the directors are present, and none objects to the holding of the meeting, or if those absent have waived notice of or have otherwise signified their consent to the holding of such meeting. Notice of an adjourned meeting is not required if the time and place of the adjourned meeting is announced at the original meeting. Unless the by-law otherwise provides, no notice of meeting need specify the purpose or the business to be transacted at the meeting except that a notice of meeting of directors shall specify any matter referred to in subsection 138(2) (Limits on Authority) of the Act that is to be dealt with at the meeting.

6.03 Regular Meetings

The board may appoint a day or days in any month or months for regular meetings of the board at a place and hour to be named. A copy of any resolution of the board fixing the place and time of such regular meetings of the board shall be sent to each director forthwith after being passed, but no other notice shall be required for any such regular meeting except if subsection 136(3) (Notice of Meeting) of the Act requires the purpose thereof or the business to be transacted to be specified in the notice.

The powers and duties of all other officers of the Corporation shall be such as the terms of their engagement call for or the board or president requires of them. The board may from time to time and subject to the Act, vary, add to or limit the powers and duties of any officer. In the event that any of the officers above are not appointed, to the extent that such officers have any responsibilities pursuant to any other provisions of this by-law, the board may assign those responsibilities to another officer or employee of the Corporation.

- (b) the officer's resignation;
- (c) such officer ceasing to be a director (if a necessary qualification of appointment);
or
- (d) such officer's death.

If the office of any officer of the Corporation shall be or become vacant, the directors may, by resolution, appoint a person to fill such vacancy.

- (c) if sent to such person by telephonic, electronic or other communication facility at such person's recorded address for that purpose; or
- (d) if provided in the form of an electronic document in accordance with Part 17 of the Act.

A notice so delivered shall be deemed to have been given when it is delivered personally or to the recorded address as aforesaid; a notice so mailed shall be deemed to have been given when deposited in a post office or public letter box; and a notice so sent by any means of transmitted or recorded communication shall be deemed to have been given when dispatched or delivered to the appropriate communication company or agency or its representative for dispatch. The declaration by the secretary that notice has been given pursuant to this by-law shall be sufficient and conclusive evidence of the giving of such notice. The signature of any director or officer of the Corporation to any notice or other document to be given by the Corporation may be written, stamped, type-written or printed or partly written, stamped, type-written or printed.

9.02 Omissions and Errors

The accidental omission to give any notice to any member, director, officer, member of a committee of the board or public accountant, or the non-receipt of any notice by any such person where the Corporation has provided notice in accordance with the by-law or any error in any notice not affecting its substance shall not invalidate any action taken at any meeting to which the notice pertained or otherwise founded on such notice.

A person participating in a meeting by such means is deemed to be present at the meeting. Notwithstanding any other provision of this by-law, any person participating in a meeting pursuant to this section who is entitled to vote at that meeting may vote, in accordance with the Act, by means of any telephonic, electronic or other communication facility that the Corporation has made available for that purpose.
